A Tonic Free from Alcohol

Are you pale, weak, easily tired, and do you lack nerve power? Ask your doctor if Ayer's Sarsaparilla would not be good for you. He knows, and will advise you wisely. Not a drop of alcohol in this medicine. puts red corpuscles into the blood, gives steady, even power to the nerves; and all without stimulation. Make no mistake. Take only those medicines the best doctors endorse. Ask your own doctor.

DEATH OF J. H. GILLIS, REAR-ADMIRAL, U. S. N.

Rear-Admiral James H. Gillis, U. S. N., retired, a gallant officer of the old navy, died December 6, 1910, at Melbourne Beach: Florida, of paralysis, Estimates have just been submitted to the war department for feeding the army for the extrent year, says the Washington Star. The game sort of a ration that he has always had for ration that he has always had for twenty-one and a fraction cents.

This may seem a little surprising to the private citizen who has been paying thirty-four cents a pound for breakfast bacon. For the current conception of the army ration is beans and bacon, with bacon and beans by way of variety.

The fact is that foodsuffs of all sorts have gone up. It is costing more per man to feed the army than it has ever cost before, but even at that the encisted man has the best of the private citizen in what he eats and what he pays for it.

Not the Lean Bacon.

Bacon costs more and the soldier does not eat the sort of heaver the foodsuff of the part of the pays for it.

Not the Lean Bacon.
